

"The Best of Todd Taylor Unleashed"

CD RELEASE DATE

APRIL 7, 2009

Pirate Records and Lost Gold Records in conjunction with Dotson Wooley Entertainment Group are proud to announce the release of Todd Taylor's newest album entitled

"The Best of Todd Taylor Unleashed". This is a compilation of the best songs recorded by the Grammy Nominee in his long and illustrious career.

Todd has achieved many milestones in his recording life including being the first person to bring the Banjo to the Rock and Roll Top 40 with Rick Dees,

setting the first worlds record with the banjo and many other personal victories he has accomplished in his life offstage.

Todd has become an icon in the music industry, Todd is to the banjo what John Coltrane was to the Saxophone! He has blazed new trails in the music world with his amazing command of the Banjo, carrying it from his roots in Bluegrass through many different styles of music to make his mark in history as a legendary banjo pioneer!

This album showcases several of Todd's original masterpiece's such as the title track "UNLEASHED" which Todd Composed for a Motion Picture.

Believe it not this incredible piece of work which is destin to become a classic was written in less than five minutes!!! another track on this album "'Going West" which was co written by ledgendary actor and songwriter "Sheb Wooley" has also made it to the motion picture sound track of "Breaking and Entering".

This album contains 18 songs from his collection of hits and a bonus track too. We, at Pirate Records, in conjunction with Dotson Wooley Entertainment Group and Lost Gold Records of Elkins Park, PA., are proud to present "The Best of Todd Taylor
""Unleashed""
